Papal Infallibility

- Jen Arnold, M.A. in Theology and Catechetics

Unique to the Catholic Church is the role of the pope as head of the Church on earth. Thus, there are some common misunderstandings about his role and the Church's teaching of papal infallibility. It is important to note that these misunderstandings have been around for a long time and are not just arising now. It is always worth refreshing our catechetical memories from time to time.

As we pronounce in the Creed, we say that our Church is apostolic, which means it is built on the "foundation of the Apostles," since Christ chose them to be His first witnesses and teachers of the faith (CCC #857). The Church teaches that the twelve Apostles were the first bishops who went out and set up churches far and wide. We review the great commission:

And Jesus said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:18-20)

From Jesus' words, we can extract certain things: 1) He is establishing them explicitly as teachers, 2) they have the power to do certain things per His authority, and 3) He will remain with the Church forever to help and guide her. We also know that later, on Pentecost, the Holy Spirit was sent as a guide and protector of the newly established Church and to empower the Apostles' teaching office (Acts 2). Apostolic succession ensures that all bishops today can be traced back to the original Apostles.

Mission Statement: Corpus Christi Catholic Church strives to be a welcoming community proclaiming the love of God and fostering a life-long personal relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church through Scripture, Sacraments, and service.

Peter's Pence — "The faithful's offerings to the Holy Father through the Peter's Pence Collection are destined to Church needs, to humanitarian initiatives and social promotion projects, as well as to the support of the Holy See." When we support Peter's Pence, we are in union with the Holy Father, with our suffering sisters and brothers throughout the world, and with all Christians since the foundations of the early Church.

Donations can be dropped off in the collection box using the envelopes marked Peter's Pence, or you may use the ONLINE GIVING system and select Peter's Pence under "Give a New Gift" to give electronically. For more info, visit www.peterspence.va.

Offering a Mass Intention

The custom of requesting a priest to offer the Mass for a specific intention, even when one cannot be physically present at the Mass, is a longstanding tradition in the Church. This is because the Church considers the Mass as the greatest possible prayer of intercession, insofar as it is the perfect offering of Christ to the Father by making present the paschal mystery of his death and resurrection.

To request a Mass offering for the intentions of a living person or for the repose of the soul of a deceased person, please feel free to contact the Parish Office. For more information and to make the request electronically (with optional payment by credit card) please visit corpuschristiphx.org/mass-intention.

The Bishop of Rome is the pope and considered to be the Successor of St. Peter, who the Church teaches was the first pope, as established by Christ Himself: “And I tell you, you are Peter and on this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.” (Matthew 16:18). Note that Jesus says the gates of hell will not prevail against His Church. This necessarily means the Church is protected from error and heresy, because if those were able to enter, then the gates of hell would be prevailing. So, the pope, as the successor of Peter, is the head of the college of bishops and the vicar of Christ on the earth (CCC #882). He is a visible reminder of Jesus and the bridge of unity between the bishops and the faithful (CCC #882).

So, if we are to believe what Jesus is telling us is true – that what the Church teaches is divinely protected truth – then there must be a mechanism in place that tells us this, which is the dogma of infallibility. Before we look at what infallibility means in this context, we need to explain why we have it in the first place. Human beings are fallible, very fallible. We sin, we make mistakes, we misjudge, we form incorrect opinions, we lack understanding... the list goes on. Even Peter denied Jesus after he was named the first pope. No one is immune from fallibility and no one ever will be. This also includes the pope, who is also just another human being like the rest of us. As a matter of fact, throughout our over 2,000-year history, we have had some notorious popes, if not even some downright evil ones. Therefore, Jesus would not want a pope, or anyone, to be able to just declare Church teaching as whatever he wants based on his current whims. This is where infallibility enters in.

The pope, or the college of bishops, do NOT exercise their infallibility at all times. In other words, it is not right to think that Catholics believe the pope is always an infallible man in all situations. Specific details need to be in place for the pope to exercise his infallibility. First, he is only infallible when officially teaching on matters of faith and morals (CCC #890). So, if he recommends you eat your fruits and vegetables, he is sharing his opinion and not speaking infallibly on official Church teaching. We will go to the Code of Canon Law for the second, very important component that needs to be present for papal infallibility. Canon 749, paragraph 3 states, “No doctrine is understood to be infallibly defined unless it is clearly established as such.” In other words, there needs to be an official declaration. We call this situation, ex cathedra, which is Latin for “from the throne,” which we Catholics also call, “speaking from the chair of St. Peter.” This is done in the form of encyclicals, decrees, constitutions, letters, catechisms, or any other form of speaking to the faithful in his official capacity and office as pope, specifically on matters of faith and morals. If there is no official document, then it would not be considered official Church teaching, which is how we can be assured of what Church teaching is and what it is not. This is one way for Catholics to differentiate between what our popes say in interviews, on TV, or in the media, and what is official Church doctrine as declared ex cathedra.

While there are situations where it can happen, it is not typical for a pope to just declare something an official Church teaching on his own without consultation from the college of bishops. When questions arise about where the Church should stand on a particular topic, there is a process to discern and disseminate the teaching. Namely, the bishops start by holding synods and ecumenical councils. Depending on the issue, they may invite secular experts, various theologians, bible scholars, and others to fully explore the issue. This is yet another protection for the Church since it ensures that no one person is making sweeping decisions individually. Rather, we can be assured that the Holy Spirit will be involved in order to protect His truth. To quote the Catechism on this, “The infallibility promised to the Church is also present in the body of bishops, when, together with Peter’s successor, they exercise the supreme Magisterium, above all in an Ecumenical Council. When the Church through its supreme Magisterium proposes a doctrine ‘for belief as being divinely revealed,’ and as the teaching of Christ, the definitions ‘must be adhered to with the obedience of faith.’ This infallibility extends as far as the deposit of divine Revelation itself.” (CCC #891). This tells us that no matter which human beings are in charge, and no matter what difficulties and challenges the Church faces, we can always trust that what we’re being taught is divinely protected truth and we can freely give our assent to matters of the faith.

Hopefully, this clears up how papal infallibility works and it empowers you to have conversations with your non-Catholic friends who may not fully understand. Please, always remember to pray for our pope, bishops, and priests. They are entrusted with so much, namely our souls, and they are subject to fallibility, just like the rest of us. We must pray for them every day to build them up and cooperate in protecting them from all the snares that may come their way.

St. Vincent de Paul

Our St. Vincent de Paul conference is active all year long. From water drives in the summer, to coat drives in the winter, and food drives all year long - especially at Thanksgiving - St. Vincent de Paul provides a multitude of ways to live out the Corporal Works of Mercy!

The trees in the vestibule are a regular occurrence each November. Each year, families in need are chosen to receive gifts they otherwise wouldn't receive. The different-colored tags on the trees indicate the gift wishes of each family member.

Twice a month, SVdP volunteers gather to do this...
What is it?
See our website for the answer and more info!

Christ Child Society

Every year, our dedicated volunteers produce more than 800 handmade layettes to be distributed to mothers and their babies in crisis. We trace and cut fabric, crochet, knit and sew items for the children in need. All materials are provided, as well as instructors, if you would like to learn a new craft! Layettes, comfort quilts, handmade teddy bears & bedtime bags are given to organizations who help mothers in need and their newborn babies!

Along with these projects, the Christ Child volunteers spend time doing something special... What is it?
See our website for the answer and more info!

Mats for the Homeless

So many plastic bags from the grocery store... what to do with them? Isn't there something useful we could make?

YES!! Believe it or not, plastic bags can be trimmed up, specialty-knotted together and crocheted into MATS for the homeless!

While the ministry is not currently accepting bags due to lack of storage space, they are taking balls of PLARN - plastic yarn. Making it is so easy, anyone can do it! Check out the instructional video on our parish website and make some plarn to donate!

High School Fall Retreat 2020

Saturday, Nov. 21 ▪ 8:30am-8:30pm

at St. Theresa Catholic Church,

5045 E Thomas Rd, Phoenix, AZ 85018

Despite the craziness of this year, we are still hosting a fall retreat! It's going to look a little different this year, but we hope you can join us for this awesome day.

What are you rooted in? We are living in uncharted territory, and it's time to talk about how we can stay rooted in Jesus during these extraordinary times.

Attendance for this event will be capped at 50, so go to our parish website to register now & secure your spot!

How can we pray for you?

Our prayer to God, through Jesus Christ, in the Holy Spirit, is the foundation of our relationship with our Trinitarian God!

We believe it is important to not only specify our prayers, but also to intentionally pray for – to intercede on behalf of – others!

To enter your prayer request, please visit our website (www.corpuschristiphx.org/prayers). The requests are compiled into an email and sent out every Friday afternoon to our Prayer Warriors via Flocknote.

To become a Prayer Warrior, text PrayCC to 84576.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I register? All Catholics living in the Parish area are invited to register in the Parish. Registration forms can be filled out via our parish website.

Adults 18⁺ need to be registered separately from their parents in order to get married, have their own children baptized, or be Godparents or Sponsors.

In order to be a Godparent or Sponsor or to receive discounted tuition rates at Catholic Schools, one must be a registered Catholic and active in the parish, which is indicated by use of contribution envelopes or the Online Giving program.

How do I have my child Baptized? Before scheduling the date, please leave a message for Carol Pavlak in the Parish Office. A preparation class is also required for parents prior to the child's Baptism. This potentially may be fulfilled via an online course.

How do I request Anointing of the Sick?

Please call the Parish Office at 480-893-8770.

DO NOT WAIT until someone is very near death to have the person anointed! Although Anointing of the Sick was once known as "Last Rites," waiting until a person is near death could risk that person not being able to receive the Sacrament if he or she should pass away prior to the priest being able to arrive. Anointing of the Sick can only be administered while the person is still alive. Due to the Corona virus, Communion to the Sick is not yet available at this time. The Sacrament of Anointing is still available for those approaching the end of life.

How do I get married in the Church?

The Diocese of Phoenix requires a NINE MONTH marriage preparation process. Call or e-mail John Deg, Director of Married Life Ministries, so he can go over the process. Do NOT set the date until approved by John as it cannot be guaranteed.

Rest in Peace

Prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe in Times of Trial

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.

We fly to you today as your beloved children. We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.

Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.

Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,

we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Responsorial Psalm: (Psalm 63)
My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord
God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.
