Christ the King

- Jen Arnold, M.A. in Theology and Catechetics

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This feast day was first established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 in response to the secularism he saw creeping into the world as more and more people began to reject having Jesus at the center of their lives. He stated that unless the Empire of the Lord was restored, there would be no peace and harmony between individuals or nations. In preparation for this week's reflection, I read Pope Pius' encyclical Quas Primas, in which he officially established the feast. As well as being a beautiful document, it also seems timelier today than ever before, which we will get into a little later. Before I dive into Pope Pius' thoughts on the Kingship of Jesus, I will clear up a couple of historical details. In Quas Primas, Pope Pius proclaims the feast to take place on the last Sunday of October in order to precede All Saints Day. In 1969, Pope Paul VI moved the feast to the last Sunday in Ordinary Time, right before Advent, because he thought it more fitting to close out the year focusing on Christ's dominion. Secondly, when Pope Pius originally established the feast, he called it the Feast of Christ the King. When Pope Paul changed the day of the celebration, he added "of the Universe" in order to emphasize the depth and breadth of the Kingdom of God. Both popes' contributions to this feast have led to how we continue to celebrate this feast today.

Now we can head back to 1925 to explore Pope Pius XI's sentiments at the time he established the feast in our liturgical calendar. He explains that we had primarily been thinking of Christ as king in a metaphorical sense, in that, He reigns in our hearts and by virtue of being the Truth, and that He also reigns in our wills as we give our assent to Him. However, Pius asserts that Christ is also king in a “strict and proper sense” as well, because He is consubstantial with the Father and “therefore has necessarily supreme and absolute dominion over all things created.” (QP #7) In other words, because God is triune and united, Christ shares in the Kingship of God the Creator and exercises His dominion over creation.

Pope Pius goes on to lay the Scriptural foundation for honoring Christ under the title of king. He summarizes the many Old Testament prophets which draw attention to the Kingdom of God and the coming ruler, including Daniel, who said:

I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. And to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him; His dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away, and His kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.
(QP #9, Dan 7:13-14)

Moving on to the New Testament, we hear of Christ’s kingship in the words of the Archangel to Mary when he says, “He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to the throne of His father David, and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever and of His kingdom there will be no end.” (QP #10 Lk 1:32) And Jesus himself describes himself as sitting upon

His “glorious throne” when he returns for the final judgement (QP #11, Mt 25:31-33). So, we can see there is plenty of evidence to be found in Scripture that it is appropriate for the Church to celebrate the kingship of Jesus Christ.

Since the Church draws upon three sources of authority and revelation – Scripture, Tradition, and the Magisterium – Pius also appropriately cites how we have acknowledged Christ as king throughout our history. The Church has consistently used titles such as King, Lord, and King of Kings, both within the liturgy and other forms of public prayer (QP #12). He also quotes St. Cyril of Alexandria (412-444 AD) as saying, “Christ, has dominion of all creatures, a dominion not seized by violence nor usurped, but his by essence and nature.” (QP #13) In creating the new feast, the pope is not establishing a new understanding of Christ as king, so much as giving it a specific day to highlight what has already been believed by the Church over the centuries.

Pius then identifies a three-fold power which is “essential to lordship.” As king, Jesus is the lawgiver, the judge, and the executor (QP #14). Throughout the gospels, Jesus gives us many instructions and directives in how to live out a holy Christian life. In following those directives, we show our love and obedience to our Lord who promises we will receive many wonderful things by doing so. He is our judge, both particular and universal. He will judge each person upon their death according to their particular life, choices, and level of culpability – being both merciful and just – and he will judge the world in its entirety upon his final coming. Finally, he executes all rewards and sanctions to everyone according to His judgement.

Pope Pius explains to us that Jesus’ “kingdom is spiritual and is concerned with spiritual things.” (QP #15) The Jews believed that when the Messiah came, it would be to liberate them from Rome and that he would establish the earthly kingdom of Israel. However, Jesus declared that His kingdom was not of this world. Pius tells us that in order to be a part of Jesus’ kingdom we need faith and baptism, but we also need to detach from riches and things of the world, pick up our crosses, and live a life of virtue.

After establishing the spiritual nature of the kingdom, Pius goes on to explain that it would be a mistake to suggest that Christ has no authority in our earthly or civil matters (QP #17). Jesus Christ came for all men and women, believers or non-believers. Individuals live within societies, states, nations and are all therefore connected together under these institutions. So, mankind collectively falls under the kingship of Christ. "In Him is the salvation of the individual, in Him is the salvation of society." (QP #18) If societies were to collectively and publicly acknowledge Christ as King, the result would be "the great blessings of real liberty, well-ordered discipline, peace and harmony." (QP #19) Further, Pope Pius states that if our civil leaders embraced Jesus as the supreme king, then "they will exercise their authority piously and wisely, and they will make laws and administer them, having in view the common good and also the human dignity of their subjects. The result will be a stable peace and tranquility, for there will no longer be any cause of discontent." (QP #19) Isn't that a wonderful thing to imagine, particularly in this day and age? It seems so simple, yet so out of reach as our societies pull further and further away from their Lord and King.

Finally, Pope Pius explains that while the Church has always held that Christ is king, it is helpful for us humans to have special days to focus on special things. We are composed of a body and soul, and when we incorporate church teaching into our physical celebrations, it helps to stimulate our spiritual life. Having a consistent annual celebration of a particular truth allows for us to continually draw our attention to it, hear it preached in our homilies, and contemplate how the truth applies to our own lives (QP #21, 29). When we take our place in the kingdom of God and find our solace in our heavenly king, Pius reminds us that we become truly free and we have "immunity from the power of the state." (QP #31) In other words, we should not lose our peace, no matter the state of our government, because everything here is fleeting and temporary. God has power over all creation and our eyes and hearts should be fixed on the eternal kingdom, which is all wonderful and all good.

This week reflect, not only on how Jesus is king in your personal life, but also how he reigns over all of creation. How does this change your perspective on particular personal and social issues?

Family Promise organizes houses of worship, social services agencies, nonprofits, and other local organizations to provide a truly holistic response to at-risk families as well as families who are experiencing homelessness.

How is Corpus Christi involved?

As one of the partners with Family Promise, Corpus Christi will host families for two different weeks during the year. Although we could not host the families due to the pandemic this year, we still provided meals for them during our committed weeks.

Ministry to the Sick

When a minister of the Church brings Communion, the sick or elderly person shares in the Eucharistic meal of the community. This holy Communion manifests the support and concern of the community for its members who are not able to be present.

While this ministry has been on hold during the pandemic, we hope to resume soon.

Respect Life Ministry

The Respect Life Ministry at Corpus Christi unites itself completely to the Culture of Life by prayer, word, and deed as designated by St. John Paul II in his encyclical letter, The Gospel of Life: 95,28. What is urgently called for is a general mobilization of consciences and a united ethical effort to activate a great campaign in support of life. Together, we must build a culture of life... choosing to be unconditionally pro-life.

Respect Life Ministry Events:

- * Annual Spring & Fall 40 Days for Life Campaigns — We pray the Rosary outside the Tempe Planned Parenthood. We pray for an end to abortion, we offer alternatives, and we stand for the Gospel of Life.

2020 KNIGHTS' KIDS UPDATE

More under-privileged children added

The twelfth annual Knights' Kids Christmas Shopping Spree is taking shape! It is sponsored by the Corpus Christi Knights of Columbus and co-sponsored by the In-Country Vietnam Vets with the participation of Ahwatukee's JCPenney store.

Several factors will make this year's Knights' Kids Program at JCPenney different and challenging. The coronavirus caused a higher than usual impact in the already poverty-stricken area of Guadalupe. Nevertheless, the event will take place Sat. Dec. 5, at the JCPenney store on Ray Road, beginning at 8 am.

However, Santa will not be on hand, and the usual breakroom treats will be absent. The children will not be present, although we will have their shopping lists. Upon completing the shopping and the inclusion of Penney's annual gifts, the bags will be marked with each child's name and loaded into a truck. Guadalupe's Frank Elementary School Coordinator, Norma, will then deliver the bags to the children.

We need volunteers, as we have approved shopping for 70 children – our largest group ever. We may ask volunteers to shop for up to three children. If you can help, please show up at Penney's no later than 7:45 am. Thank you.

In addition to volunteers, we welcome donations in any amount. Checks should be payable to: Corpus Christi Knights of Columbus 501c3. "Knights' Kids" should be entered on the memo line.

We will accept donations at the store on Sat. Dec. 5, between 8 am-9 am or kindly consider mailing donations to: Knights of Columbus, Corpus Christi Catholic Church, 3550 E. Knox Road, Phoenix, AZ 85044.

May God bless you for your goodness. As always, we appreciate your assistance and generosity. Your patronage enables us to perform works beyond our usual limitations. Thank you!

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I register? All Catholics living in the Parish area are invited to register in the Parish. Registration forms can be filled out via our parish website.

Adults 18+ need to be registered separately from their parents in order to get married, have their own children baptized, or be Godparents or Sponsors.

In order to be a Godparent or Sponsor or to receive discounted tuition rates at Catholic Schools, one must be a registered Catholic and active in the parish, which is indicated by use of contribution envelopes or the Online Giving program.

How do I have my child Baptized? Before scheduling the date, please leave a message for Carol Pavlak in the Parish Office. A preparation class is also required for parents prior to the child's Baptism. This potentially may be fulfilled via an online course.

How do I request Anointing of the Sick? Please call the Parish Office at 480-893-8770. DO NOT WAIT until someone is very near death to have the person anointed! Although Anointing of the Sick was once known as "Last Rites," waiting until a person is near death could risk that person not being able to receive the Sacrament if he or she should pass away prior to the priest being able to arrive. Anointing of the Sick can only be administered while the person is still alive. Due to the Corona virus, Communion to the Sick is not yet available at this time. The Sacrament of Anointing is still available for those approaching the end of life.

How do I get married in the Church? The Diocese of Phoenix requires a NINE MONTH marriage preparation process. Call or e-mail John Deg, Director of Married Life Ministries, so he can go over the process. Do NOT set the date until approved by John as it cannot be guaranteed.

Prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe in Times of Trial

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.

We fly to you today as your beloved children. We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.

Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.

Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,

we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Responsorial Psalm: (Psalm 23)

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord
God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation Options

1. We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.
2. When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.
3. Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.
